Dionne and Harry Parker, 7-5, 6-2. Peaslee was handicapped, as the popular Myrick goodnaturedly demonstrated that as a tennis player he is a great president of the West Side Tennis Club. Dr. Rosenbaum was the star of the other match, cutstendying even the steady Dionne. Man and Major played great tennis against Merrill Hall and Ted Whitney. Man's fast service was going well, shooting from the grass fast against the racket, and his net play was first class, warranting the predictions made by several experts that he will jump up in the national ranking this year. Forced at all stages, Hall and Whitney fended to become erratic, though they made many brilliant shots. Major at all times backed up Man well, supplying the steadiness to the combination.

Howard Voshell, the hard-hitting Brooklyn southpaw, won the Eastern tennis chamsouthpaw, won the Eastern tennis championship of New York State for the third time yesterday morning on the courts of the County Tennis Club of Westchester, Greenacres, Hartsdale.

Veshell defeated the young Fordham University comer, Elliot (Biffer) Binzen, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, and obtained permanent possession of the valuable trophy by his third win of it.

This was the second time the two performers have met each other this spring. At the Bronx County singles championship, which Voshell won, he

LONG WALLOP IN NINTH GIVES GAME TO TIGERS

In the last week the champions made a total of only five errors, less than that of any other team in either league. Clarence Walker, the young outfielder who has succeeded Speaker, gave evidence of hitting ability, making a pair of doubles and a triple in Wednesday's game.

Detroit's famed sluggers, who have been slow in rounding into form, showed improvement last week, notably in the case of Cobb, and the team encroached a little further on the leaders by dividing eight games, while Chicago held its position by winning five out of seven.
